RESUME/BIODATA OF SPEAKER

Biosketch: Dr. Suchandra Dutta

Dr. Suchandra Dutta has taken formal degree in Plant Taxonomy from University of Mumbai, India. Dr. Dutta is engaged in research (> 20 years) the area of Angiosperm Taxonomy with special emphasis on Nomenclature and typification, especially of Linnaean Plant Names. She is developing a herbarium (RDNCP) at R. D. & S. H. National College; registered with Index Herbariorum, USA. She is presently teaching undergraduate and guiding doctoral students at R. D. & S. H. National College, Bandra (W.), Mumbai . She emphasises on inculcating research interest among students from undergraduate level and a couple of her students are involved in describing new species while they are studying B,Sc. Course.

Dr. Dutta is the Recipient of Kanchi and Kasturi Gandhi Award for Plant Nomenclature (of EHSST); Fellow (FLS) of Linnaean Society of London, Fellow (FIAAT) of Indian Association of Angiosperm Taxonomy; Nominated member of the Virtual Committee in Nomenclature Section (NS) during International Botanical Congress (IBC), Nominated member of IUCN-SSC, Nominated member of Board of Directors of MNPS by Mumbai Metropolitan Regional Development Authority.

She has been imparting knowledge about nature, wildlife conservation to the students of various levels through excursions; through talks on Nomenclature, Plant Taxonomy, and Urban Ethnobotany at different Colleges and Universities in India. Developing Dhanwantari Medicinal Plant Garden (having around 260 plant species) at R. D. & S. H. National College , Bandra (W.), Mumbai .

Her Vision:

The experience gained throughout teaching and research career in the area of team building, leadership, project development and fund raising would be utilised in this forum to help developing the herbarium, especially in smaller institutions (may a times, these are the places where some significant information is housed but overlooked) . If elected as one of the members in Society of Herbarium Curators, I would be happy to share and use my expertise for curating the specimens and update nomenclature of every name on a regular basis. Organise training to update Knowledge base regularly through relevant workshop, seminars with an aim to capacity building. Be a part in developing policy to exchange vouchers on loan or gift on membership basis which would facilitate better taxonomic revisionary work. Another area where I would like to contribute is to incorporate maximum possible uptodate regional ethnobotanical collections. Support research students exchange programs , and encourage citizen science activity . Nonetheless, I would assist in developing plant image database by involving common youth who are involved in documenting plants as an amateur (a citizen science activity).
