Report

Name Of The Event: Blood Donation Camp 🩸 - "Rakt Daan, Ek Mahan Daan ❤️"

Date and Day: October 25, 2023 (Wednesday)

Time:

- SLOT 1: 09:00 AM to 1:30 PM

- SLOT 2: 1:00 PM to 5:30 PM

Venue: Ghatkopar Railway Station (Metro connecting bridge)

Objective: The NSS unit of Ramniranjan Jhunjunwala College, in collaboration with J.J Group of Hospital, Blood Bank, is organizing a Blood Donation Camp with the objective of encouraging voluntary blood donation to save lives. This noble initiative aims to create awareness about the importance of donating blood and its life-saving impact on those in need.

UN SDG:

- SDG 3: Good Health and Well-being - Blood donation camps directly support this goal by providing a vital resource for medical treatments, surgeries, and emergencies. Access to safe blood can help reduce mortality rates, improve health outcomes, and ensure the well-being of individuals in need of blood transfusions.
- SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities - Blood donation camps promote equality in access to healthcare by providing a critical resource that is essential for saving lives regardless of socio-economic status, gender, ethnicity, or nationality.
- SDG 17: Partnerships for the Goals - Organizing blood donation camps often involves collaboration between various stakeholders, including government agencies, healthcare institutions, non-profit organizations, and community groups. By working together, these partners can mobilize resources, raise awareness, and increase blood donation rates, thus contributing to the achievement of shared objectives related to health and well-being.
- SDG 3: Good Health and Well-being (sub-target 3.8) - This sub-target specifically focuses on achieving universal health coverage, including access to safe, effective, quality, and affordable essential medicines and vaccines for all. Blood donation camps contribute to this target by ensuring the availability of safe blood supplies, which are essential for healthcare systems to function effectively.
- SDG 3: Good Health and Well-being (sub-target 3.3) - This sub-target aims to end the epidemics of AIDS, tuberculosis, malaria, and neglected tropical diseases, as well as combat hepatitis, water-borne diseases, and other communicable diseases. Blood donation camps contribute to this target by ensuring the availability of safe blood transfusions, which are crucial for the treatment of various medical conditions, including those related to communicable diseases.

Brief Description: On October 25, 2023, the NSS unit of Ramniranjan Jhunjunwala College, in partnership with J.J Group of Hospital, Blood Bank, hosted a Blood Donation Camp at the Ghatkopar Railway Station (Metro connecting bridge). This event was a tribute to the selfless act of blood donation, symbolizing "Rakt Daan, Ek Mahan Daan ❤️."

Two time slots were available for volunteers to donate blood - Slot 1 from 09:00 AM to 1:30 PM and Slot 2 from 1:00 PM to 5:30 PM. The camp provided a convenient and accessible location for donors to contribute to this noble cause.

The primary aim of this camp was to collect voluntary blood donations and raise awareness about the critical need for blood to save lives. By organizing this event, the NSS unit aimed to inspire a sense of social responsibility among the volunteers and the community.

The collaboration with J.J Group of Hospital, Blood Bank, ensured that the collected blood will be used for medical purposes, making a significant impact on the health and well-being of those in need. The NSS unit expresses its gratitude to the volunteers for their selfless contribution and encourages more individuals to participate in this noble act of giving blood.
