Number of volunteers: 4

Brief description: The food distribution was carried outside tata cancer hospital, Parel. The main aim was to provide nutritious food that is good for their health. Food distribution to both patients and their family members as they are not able to afford good food. Four NSS volunteers took part in this activity.

The Food Distribution Drive, organised by the NSS Unit of R.J. College in collaboration with the Satya Sai Foundation, aims to provide essential food items to individuals and families in need. This event represents a collective effort to address food insecurity and alleviate hunger within the community.

Volunteers will gather outside TATA Cancer Hospital in Parel to distribute nutritious food packages to beneficiaries. The distribution drive will run for one hour, from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm, allowing community members to access much-needed support during this time.

Through this initiative, we hope to make a positive impact on the lives of those facing food insecurity while fostering a sense of compassion and solidarity within our community. Your participation and support are greatly appreciated as we strive to ensure that no one goes hungry.
