Report

Name of the Event: AIDS Awareness Rally on world AIDS day

Day and date: Friday, 01st December 2023

Time: 11:00 am to 01:00 pm

Venue: R.J. College Surroundings

Organized by: NSS Unit of R.J. College

Objective of the activity: To be aware of general masses (Public) about cause and consequences of AIDS

UN SDG:

1. SDG 3: Good Health and Well-being: The primary focus of the rally would be to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS, promote prevention strategies, encourage testing, and ensure access to treatment and support services. By educating people about HIV/AIDS, you contribute to reducing new infections and improving the overall health and well-being of communities.

2. SDG 4: Quality Education: Through the rally, educational materials and resources about HIV/AIDS can be distributed, raising awareness and understanding among people of all ages. This helps in combating stigma and discrimination associated with the disease and promotes a more inclusive and informed society.

3. SDG 5: Gender Equality: HIV/AIDS disproportionately affects women and girls, particularly in certain regions and demographics. By addressing HIV/AIDS awareness and prevention in the rally, you can contribute to promoting gender equality by empowering women and girls with knowledge and access to resources for prevention, testing, and treatment.

4. SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities: HIV/AIDS often affects marginalized populations such as LGBTQ+ individuals, sex workers, people who inject drugs, and ethnic minorities. By organizing a rally that reaches out to these communities, you can contribute to reducing inequalities in access to healthcare and support services.

5. SDG 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions: Combating HIV/AIDS requires strong institutions, effective policies, and access to justice. By advocating for policies that support HIV/AIDS prevention, treatment, and support services, you contribute to building stronger institutions and promoting justice for those affected by the disease.

6. SDG 17: Partnerships for the Goals: Organizing the rally involves collaboration between governments, non-governmental organizations, community groups, healthcare providers, and other stakeholders. By fostering partnerships and collaboration, you can maximize the impact of the event and work together towards ending the HIV/AIDS epidemic.

Number of participants: 45

Brief description: The AIDS Awareness Rally on World AIDS Day is a community-driven event aimed at raising awareness about HIV/AIDS, promoting prevention strategies, and advocating for access to treatment and support services.

Through educational materials, speakers, and activities, the rally seeks to combat stigma, empower individuals with knowledge, and foster solidarity in the fight against HIV/AIDS. By engaging diverse stakeholders and promoting partnerships, the event contributes to achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, particularly those related to good health and well-being, education, gender equality, reduced inequalities, strong institutions, and partnerships for sustainable development.

Outcome of the Event: As a volunteer at this event, we tried to make the public about AIDS. It was restricted to ours. College premises but also. We covered it near the college surroundings. The most useful method used in the rally was through helping with placards and raising slogans. In a way we also tried to give solutions uncovering to all those peoples regarding this crucial boon on our Indian society.

Lastly most significantly: This also created more awareness as compared to this previous understanding and has helped us a lot through peer-to-peer discussions.
