Date: 27th January, 2024

Time: 12:00 a.m. onwards

Venue: RJ College

Number of Participants: 76

- Planning meetings were held to organize logistics, set goals, and assign responsibilities by both NSS and RCRJ.
- Donation boxes were packed and if anyone wished to donate with were welcomed with the help of jpegs placed across the college.
- Volunteers were stationed at designated rooms to receive donations, information booths were set up to raise awareness about the cause and encourage participation. It was started at sharp 11:00 a.m with members and staff coming to donate food.
- Many members of the club also came together to help and support along with their friends. Various items got collected throughout the event mainly the food items which can help the needy. Around 4:00 pm, we closed the food donation drive.

Objectives:

- The aim of the food donation drive organized by the NSS and RCRJ at was to collect food items from students and staff to donate to those in need within the local community.
- The primary objective is to help the needy and alleviate hunger and food insecurity.
- It aims to reduce food wastage while addressing social issues and promoting a more equitable distribution of resources.

Impact:

- The donations reached many slums in the local community, providing essential help during challenging times.
- The initiative garnered positive attention from both the college community and the wider public, fostering a sense of unity and social responsibility.
- Through this drive, awareness about food insecurity issues was raised, prompting discussions and further initiatives to address the root causes.
