REPORT

Activity Name: Artshala

Date: 7th January 2024

Organized by: Population Education Club (PEC) Students, Department of Lifelong Learning and Extensions Unit (DLLE)

Platforms Used: Google Forms for registration, WhatsApp for coordination, and Gmail for communication.

Brief Description:

The Artshala event, organized by PEC students of the DLLE Unit, was a community service initiative aimed at enhancing the learning environment for a local school. In partnership with an NGO, students volunteered to revamp the school's visual appeal through painting and artistic designs. The project was focused on creating a vibrant and welcoming atmosphere conducive to learning.

Objective:

The primary objective was to engage students in social service by applying their artistic skills to improve school facilities. This initiative also aimed to foster a sense of community and social responsibility among the students.

Outcome:

The event saw enthusiastic participation from over 30 volunteers, who managed to paint four classrooms and the main hallway within the allotted time of 3 hours. The activity not only brightened the school's interiors but also left a lasting impact on both the volunteers and the school's students, fostering a sense of pride and ownership among all parties involved.
