Report

Name of the Session: Paddle for survival

Day: Thursday

Date: 10th August 2023

Time: 7:00 am onwards

Venue: RJ college to Shivaji Shikshan Multi-purpose technical High school ghatkopar east

No. of Participants: 124

- This platform allowed individuals to explore and present different perspectives, encouraging critical thinking.
- The rally aimed to provide participants and the audience the deeper understanding of the complex issues surrounding physical health dynamics, such as overweight, depressed and their impact on various aspects of society, including healthcare, education, environment, and economic development.
- By engaging in the cycle rally, participants were supposed to improve their ability to present logical arguments, counter opposing viewpoints, and effectively communicate their idea.
- International Youth Day emphasizes the significance of global cooperation and understanding in addressing obesity-related challenges.
- The cycle rally provided a platform for youth from diverse backgrounds and cultures to develop a broader perspective on the obesity issues we face in early age and how much healthy body is important as healthy mind.
- By organizing this cycle rally -Paddle for survival on International Population Day, we aimed to engage young minds, empower them with knowledge, and encourage them to become active participants in shaping their body and equitable future for their own self.

Objectives:

- Raise awareness about global health challenges, specifically focusing on physical and mental well-being, through the cycle rally on International Population Day.
- Encourage critical thinking, effective communication, and understanding of health complexities among participants, empowering them with knowledge on population health issues.

Outcomes:

- Participants gain insight into the challenges surrounding physical and mental health, fostering a better understanding of societal impacts like obesity on healthcare, education, and the environment.
- Improved critical thinking, analytical, and communication skills among participants, enabling them to articulate informed perspectives and counter opposing viewpoints effectively. The event achieved the objective where all the students were satisfied and responded with positive feedback.
