Report

BMS Department

Name of the Session: Overviews of Capital Market series 1

Trainer: MR. VINAY PRAKASH VARSHA MAVANI & MR MUZIBAR SHAIKH

Day: Thursday to Saturday

Date: 6 to 8th July 2023

Time: 12:00 to 1:45 pm onwards

Venue: Seminar Room

No. of Participants:

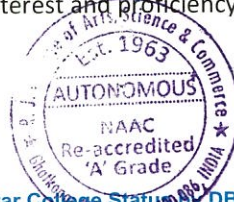

No. of Teachers: 03

Objective : The seminar conducted at the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) aimed to provide students with an in-depth understanding of stock market operations, investment strategies, and portfolio management. The primary objective was to equip students with practical knowledge on stock trading and investment analysis to enhance their decision-making skills in financial investments.

Input: The seminar commenced with Mr. Vinay Sir, who delivered a detailed explanation of the stock market's operations. He outlined the various types of stocks and the listing processes for companies on major stock exchanges. Following his presentation, Mr. Muzibar Shaikh provided insights into technical analysis, focusing on the candle model, and discussed strategies for buying and selling stocks based on both fundamental and technical analysis. He also covered the workings of mutual funds and Systematic Investment Plans (SIPs), including their growth patterns, waiting periods, and methods for performance evaluation.

Process: The seminar was structured to first impart foundational knowledge about the stock market and the different types of financial instruments available. Mr. Vinay Sir's presentation set the groundwork by explaining stock listings and market operations. Mr. Muzibar Shaikh then advanced the discussion by introducing technical analysis tools such as the candle model and discussing how to use fundamental and technical analysis to make informed trading decisions. He also elaborated on mutual funds and SIPs, focusing on their calculations, growth trajectories, and performance metrics. The seminar was interactive, with opportunities for students to engage actively through questions and discussions.

Output: The seminar significantly enhanced students' understanding of stock market mechanics and investment strategies. Participants gained practical insights into stock trading, including how stocks are listed and the use of technical and fundamental analysis for making investment decisions. They also acquired knowledge on evaluating mutual funds and SIPs, including their growth patterns and performance analysis. The active involvement of students and the positive feedback received underscored the seminar's success in fostering a deeper interest and proficiency in financial markets.
