REPORT

The Department of B.Com (Accounting and Finance) and BVoc organized a Pre-Placement Talk on 7th February 2024 in collaboration with Niva Bupa Health Insurance. The session aimed to prepare students for the upcoming placement season by providing them with industry insights, career guidance, and practical advice for succeeding in recruitment processes.

During the session, a representative from Niva Bupa introduced the company, discussed its operations in the health insurance sector, and outlined career opportunities. They emphasized essential skills like effective communication, resume building, and interview preparedness. An engaging Q&A session allowed students to interact directly with the professional, addressing their queries and enhancing their understanding of the industry.

The talk proved to be a valuable learning experience, motivating students to align their skills and aspirations with industry requirements. Overall, the session was a significant step in bridging the gap between academic learning and professional readiness.
