Report

Name of Event: Alumni Interaction -COCO

Date of event: January 31, 2024

Number of Beneficiaries: 29 students

Aim:

To help students understand career opportunities in History.

Input:

After posting the notice about the session, the students were explained about the importance of attending the session, to help them get a clear idea about what they can do after graduation.

Process:

The Department of History organized a career guidance session for its TYBA students on January 31,2024. Our Alumni Ms. Akanksha Singh who is currently pursuing her Masters came to interact with the students and shared her insights about how to study for TYBA exams. She also shared her experiences as a student pursuing post-graduation in History at the University of Mumbai. She also presented a powerpoint on various career opportunities available to History students. She emphasized the need to learn and hone skills through internships. The interactive session was attended by 29 students of TYBA History.

Outcome:

Students learnt about internships in History. Their doubts regarding paths to take after graduation were discussed and resolved.
