Development under NEP

Objective of the Program:

1. To salute and express respect towards the rich tradition of state language as per state government orders.
2. To inculcate love for Mother tongue and state language Marathi among the students.
3. To give platform to the students to express different types of talents and skills.
4. To make students aware of legacy of tradition and culture of Maharashtra carried through the Language.

Department of Marathi and Marathi Wangmay Mandal organized 'Jaagatik Marathi Bhaashaa Din - Vividharangi kalaavishkaar' language-based entertainment program to celebrate Jaagatik Marathi Bhaashaa Din on February 27, 2024. As per the Government mandate, Maharashtra Rajyageet was presented along with Marathi Abhiman Geet by RJ students' Music group under guidance of Music Teacher Aditya Khavaneekar. This was followed by program- 'Vividharangee kalaavishkaar'. Students recited poems, performed songs from Bhakti cult, various folk-dance of Maharashtra. Similarly, Teachers and support staff also presented their artistic skills under 'Kalaavishkaar'. It was organized to increase knowledge and create interest in Marathi Language, literature and culture. 55 students attended the program. On the occasion of Marathi Bhaashaa Din, Exhibition of books written by famous Writer late shri. Vidyadhar Pundalik and Veteran Editor, Playwriter Late Shri. Vidyadhar Gokhale was jointly organized with library to commemorate the birth centenary Year of Vidyadhar Pundalik and Vidyadhar Gokhale. Similarly, annual prize distribution of different competitions held by department and Marathi Wangmay Mandal also took place at the hands of Chief Guest.

Outcome of the program:

1. 30 students participated in the program expressed their talent of singing, dancing, recitating poetry etc.
