Report of Granth Dindi

Date: 18/01/2024

No of Participant: 77

Relevance: UN SDG 4

Indian Art and Culture, IKS, Value Education, Holistic Development under NEP

Objective of Program:

1. To encourage reading habits among students.
2. To emphasis importance of books in Marathi language.
3. To make students aware of rich literary tradition in Marathi, Marathi Culture and express respect for it.

Department of Marathi and Marathi Wangmay Mandal organized 'Granth Dindi' with object to encourage reading habits among students, to emphasis importance of books in Marathi language and to express respect of literary tradition in Marathi on 18, 2024. Granth Dindi was cultural procession where old scripts, books by great authors were kept in decorated palanquin and it was shouldered by book-readers, book-lovers. 77 Students participated in the procession with books and Granth Dindi. This procession illuminated curiosity about books in the minds of school children also in the vicinity of college. Granth Dindi was organised as a part of celebrating Marathi Bhasha Saunvardhan Pandharvada to salute state language, to preserve and develop its rich heritage and tradition during January 14-28, 2024.

Outcome of program:

1. Sevent- seven students participated the program.
2. Students and students in the nearby school developed curiosity about books in Marathi.
3. Students came to know tradition of typical procession -Dindi and got opportunity to participate in it.

Impact of program:

1. Students got inspired to read the books which they saw and handled in procession.
2. Students got aware about rich literary tradition and culture and sense of belongingness to it.
