Report

The group of pees in association with SES REC organised a poster making competition on 14th December to 16th December 2023 on the topic save energy/ save Earth/ save pocket.

Participants were tasked with visually communicating the importance of conserving both money, earth and energy in daily life. 157 students participated in this competition and helped us circulate the importance with their creativity leading this competition to be a successful event.

Objective -

The "Save Money, Save Energy, Save Pocket" poster-making competition successfully encouraged participants to think creatively about the intersection of financial prudence and environmental responsibility. The entries not only demonstrated artistic talent but also effectively communicated the importance of individual actions in achieving a more sustainable and cost-effective lifestyle. The competition served as a reminder that small changes can collectively make a significant difference, benefiting both our wallets and the planet.
