REPORT

The event held on August 12th, 2023, buzzed with excitement as the clock ticked closer to the commencement. At 11:30 AM, our enthusiastic host warmly welcomed our esteemed judges, Suraj Singh Sir, and all eager participants, setting the stage for a memorable event.

Following the introductions, the debate competition kicked off, with clear rules delineated for the participants. With topics chosen and arguments prepared, participants took turns gracing the stage, engaging in spirited debates. Each presentation sparked insightful discussions, challenging the audience to consider varying perspectives.

After a riveting display of arguments, a brief 5-minute intermission allowed for anticipation to build before the announcement of winners. Echoing the sentiment that "All are winners in their own way," the host celebrated the participants' efforts before unveiling the champions, concluding the event on a reflective note filled with meaningful discourse and cherished memories.

Objective The debate competition aimed to raise awareness about the positive and negative impacts of social media, gaming, and AI among students, aligning with International Youth Day. It sought to enhance participants' critical thinking skills on these pertinent topics.
