REPORT

The Department of English and the English Literary Association of Ramniranjan Jhunjhunwala College successfully celebrated their annual literary extravaganza, Lit-Fiesta 2023-24, on the 2nd and 3rd of February 2024. This much-anticipated intra-collegiate event aimed to foster creativity and ignite a passion for literature and writing among the students.

A diverse range of activities and competitions were organized, each designed to showcase the participants' literary talents. The events included creative writing, poetry recitation, debate, and storytelling, which witnessed enthusiastic participation. The creative writing competition, a crowd favourite, encouraged students to explore imaginative themes, while the poetry recitation captivated the audience with its depth of emotions and expression. The debate competition sparked intellectual discussions on contemporary topics, showcasing the eloquence and critical thinking skills of the participants. Storytelling brought narratives to life, blending creativity with performance.

The event was marked by vibrant energy, with students from various streams coming together to celebrate literature. Judges commended the participants for their innovative ideas and linguistic flair. The winners were awarded certificates and prizes, adding to the celebratory spirit. Lit-Fiesta 2023-24 once again proved to be a platform for fostering talent and camaraderie among the students.
