Brief Report:-

CORPORA is a departmental event conducted every year to provide platform to the students to showcase their hidden qualities by participating in different events. It allows students to exhibit their entrepreneurship skill by setting up two days business stalls. This programme allows students to learn and practice management skills. This year we had conducted events like Best out of waste, Video advertising, Business Game, Poster and Logo making, Business stalls, Pradarshan (PPT) and Fun with music. The programme got overwhelming response from the students of different faculties. The object of this event is to make the students learn the management functions by doing the work. The outcome of the event is students' understands management principals and functions by actually organising the event.
