1. Ms. Rekha Shetty (BAF In-charge)
2. Mr. Nilesh Ghadge (Members (R J College))
3. Dr. Sachin Acharekar (Subject experts from outside Mumbai University)
4. Arunima Haldar (Subject experts from outside Mumbai University)
5. CA Priti Parikh (Subject experts from Mumbai University)
6. Dr. Rakhi Sharma (Subject experts from Mumbai University)

Minutes:

1. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The members were briefed about the current engagement of the students and action taken on the past recommendations.
2. With regards to progression from 120 credit program to 132 credits, the members approved inclusion of two out of three Swayam courses offered for an increase of 4 credits at SYBAF level for AY 2022-2023 and introduction of new subjects of 6 credits at TYBAF level for AY 2023-2024. Thus, Semester V will have 'Business Planning and entrepreneurial management' as a subject of 3 credits and Semester VI will have 'Security Analysis and Portfolio management' for 3 credits.
3. Feedback of the stakeholders and the BOS members suggested changes in the syllabus of Financial Accounting, Business Communication, Indirect tax, Cost Accounting and IT in Accountancy. The changes suggested are in view of the current need of the industry. Detailed report of the same will be prepared and sent for approval before implementation.

4. Suggestion to give students an option in Project (Semester VI subject) to be either Research based or Internship based instead of it being only Research based. This is purely an effort to encourage internships among students.
5. In addition to syllabus revision, the members contributed in bringing some flavor to the course. Dr. Arunima Haldar recommended a few guest speakers for the program. Dr. Rakhi Sharma agreed to share caselets for Business Environment and internship based project format. Dr. Sachin Archarekar and CA Priti Parikh carried out a detailed review of various subjects related to Accountancy.
6. Meeting ended with a vote of thanks.
