none

Curriculum is presice

No suggestion

Please tell teachers in your department to talk softly and in a good manner with students who are in need . All are not like that but more then half teachers answers very badly with students foreign language

No.

Career counseling program for students could be useful.

It's all very good.

Teaching courses

curriculum needs to be more updated

Not really

No

Curriculum must contain some moral related poems stories just interesting in case of relation to students life

Nothing specific, the teachers are very empathetic and that made it better to understand the research too. Topic wise things can be added on like any other novel or plays, but as my area is concerned there shall always be something else to add as it is literature and thus becomes subjective.

NA

Deep study of M.A linguistic and grammar, phonetics, drama, acting, writing poems, articles, etc.

Any add on course for writing and learning the other forms in literature
