Curriculum Feedback for syllabus of 2022 - 23(April 2023)

An overall positive feedback was received from the stakeholders namely students, alumni and industry persons for the History curriculum. The feedback was taken twice, once in September 2022 and again in April, 2023.

Report of September 2022

An overall positive feedback was received from all stakeholders namely, teachers, students, alumni and industry persons for the History curriculum of 2021 - 22.

More than 50 % of the student and alumni respondents agreed that the curriculum gave them a basic understanding of the subject. Close to 70% of them feel that it has helped them develop heritage consciousness. Maximum students felt that the curriculum would prepare them for careers in the fields of competitive examinations, teaching, research and archaeology and allied fields.

Students suggested that topics like history of North East India and Latin America should be introduced. 5 Industry experts gave their feedback on the UGC Travel and Tourism course. Most of them agreed that the syllabus was concise and could give students a basic understanding of the tourism industry and its requirements.

A few valuable suggestions were received from stakeholders for the syllabus of B. A. in History and the UGC Add On Travel & Tourism Course.

The suggestion to include the History of North east and Latin America was discussed with the BOS Members in the meeting held on September 13, 2022. North East India would be given a thought when further revision of the FYBA syllabus on History of Modern India and SYBA syllabus on History of Ancient India would be undertaken. Module related to Latin America was being considered to be introduced in the World History Syllabus of TYBA to be introduced in 2023-24. To further help them prepare for competitive exams, a paper related to GK, Current Affairs and Critical thinking is planned to be introduced at the TYBA level. To develop heritage consciousness a Value Added course on Cultural Heritage of India and a Discipline Specific Elective was introduced.
