ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Analysis of feedback on curriculum for the academic year 2022-23

Feedback on the Psychology curriculum at the S.Y.B.A. level was taken from the three stakeholders: students, peer-teachers and industry-persons. The respective points from the feedback with the recommendations gathered were discussed in the Board of Studies meeting held on April 10, 2023.

Following points were discussed in the BOS meeting (April 10, 2023) relevant to the suggestions in the feedback analysis:

1. According to the curriculum feedback taken from the stakeholders, 95.3 % students, 100% peer teachers, and 100% industry experts agreed on the relevance of the curriculum to the needs of the industry. The same was acknowledged by the members of Board of Studies.
2. 76.2% students, 100% peer teachers, and 90% industry experts believed the curriculum to be relevant to the needs of the society. This positive feedback was also recognized by the board members.
3. All the stakeholders expressed favourable opinions regarding the ability of the curriculum to enhance students' skills, which was conveyed to the board. The board members particularly appreciated the concise nature of the curriculum considering the wide range of topics included under each paper.

4. The board agreed on including topics of 'Love, Liking, & Romantic Relationships' and 'Prosocial Behaviour' under Paper II: Social Psychology as 'non- evaluative' for self-study in order to make the curriculum relevant to the needs of the society while still keeping it concise.
5. Based on the suggestion received in curriculum feedback, consistency was established in the length of the units i.e., 3 subtopics under each unit.
6. With respect to students having easier and better understanding of Paper III: Developmental Psychology, the board accepted the reordering of contents according to theories and aspects of development as opposed to the previous organization based on age-groups.
