Report of Bridge Course

Department of History

The Department of History conducted a Bridge Course for its SYBA and TYBA History students in the first week of College reopening from June 13-18, 2022. An orientation session was conducted on June 14, 2022 by all the departments under the leadership of Principal and Vice-Principals as part of Dikshaarambh (Induction programme). The students were given an insight into the subject and also briefed about the programmes and activities conducted by each department. From June 15-17, a bridge course was conducted for the TYBA History students by Dr. Meher Mistry and Prof. Snehal Nagtilak. The topics done at SYBA level were briefly revised. The connections between the Papers studied at FYBA and SYBA with the TYBA syllabus were emphasized. The students were acquainted with the papers that they were going to study in the coming semester. On June 18, the students attended a session on Health.

Similarly a bridge course was conducted from June 14- June 18 for SYBA History students. The FYBA syllabus was revised and the two papers being taught at SYBA level namely Landmarks in World History and Ancient India were introduced to the students. In the Bridge Course conducted for FYBA, the topics related to Indian History were revised. They were introduced to the concepts of periods in history.
