REPORT

Name of the event: Aahar

Date: 8TH July, 2022

Venue: Amar Mahal, Chembur

Time: 8:00 a.m. to 9:52 a.m.

The primary aim of the Aahar project is to address hunger and malnutrition among people living in slum areas. By distributing food as a token of love, the project aimed to provide a basic need of living to those who might not have access to it otherwise. The project also aimed to spread joy and happiness by providing food that is not only nutritious but also tasty. By doing so, the project hopes to create a sense of community and togetherness among people living in slum areas, where the lack of resources and basic amenities can often lead to isolation. Further, the project seeks to raise awareness about the issue of hunger and malnutrition in society and to encourage people to take action to address it, to inspire others to get involved and to make a positive impact in their communities and to improve the quality of life for people living in slum areas by addressing their basic needs and promoting a sense of empathy among people.

The project created a significant impact on the lives of people living in slum areas. One of the most immediate impacts of the project is the reduction of hunger and malnutrition among people living in these areas, which was accomplished by providing nutritious and tasty pulav to over 625 people. Additionally the project had a positive impact on the health of people living in slum areas, by addressing issues of malnutrition and related health problems. Another important impact of the Aahar project was the sense of community and togetherness it created among people living in slum areas, by providing a common space where people can come together and share a meal. This sense of belonging and social connections had a positive impacts on mental health and wellbeing. Further, the Aahar project helped to empower the people it served by alleviating some of the financial burden that people living in poverty often face as a result they don't have food, the project raised awareness about the issue of hunger in slum areas, it inspired others to get involved and take action to understand the issue, and serve as a powerful tool for policy change.

The feedback for the Aahar event emphasizes its success in providing happiness and nourishment to people in slum areas, while also highlighting the importance of giving back to the community and effective collaboration between different clubs. It serves as a reminder of the potential for small acts of kindness to create meaningful change in the world through identifying community needs, giving back, and working together to achieve common goals, the co-ordination between zrrs was also appreciated.
