REPORT

Name of the event: Navyuva-Skit and Debate

Date: 12th August, 2022

Venue: Ramniranjan Jhunjunwala College

Navyuva-Skit and Debate is a project by International Service Avenue which will be conducted to remark international youth day. The focus of the event is to build a better future for our children. It also aims at raising awareness about poverty, encouraging creative thinking for a better future.

The flow of the event was divided in two halves. The first half comprised of skit and second half comprised of skit and second part includes a healthy debate competition. The skit started at 11:50 outside of seminar hall. The topic of the skit was Cyber Crime Awareness. It was a short skit of 10 minutes which comprised of the glimpse for our youth about cyber crime scam. Skit was wonderful and knowledgeable as informed by the audience.

The second half of the event was debate which started at 1:30p.m. After introduction of judges were asked to guide all the participants and make all of them aware about the rules and regulations of the competition. Event started with full enthusiasm and excitement. All debated very very well, each and every member displayed their point of view very well. The competition was very tough. The winners of the competition were

1st winner: Ms. Ketaki Kulkarni

2nd winner: Mr. Gajendra Dubey.

Overall, the event was carried out successfully and smoothly. Event ended on a good note.
