REPORT

Name of the event: Let's Reminisce

Date: 30th December, 2022

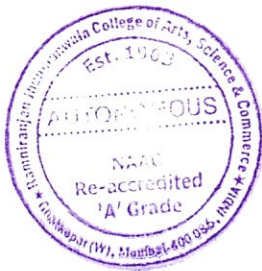

Time: 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Venue: RJ College, Ghatkopar West.

The aim of the "Let's Reminisce Quarter 2" event was to evoke memories and recall experiences of the second quarter. It aimed to encourage members to write and speak on stage to improve their skills and reduce stage fear. The event also aimed to assess member satisfaction with events conducted in the quarter, gather feedback from members who joined during that period, and have a flashback of the entire quarter. Overall, the aim was to create beautiful memories and end the quarter with energy and enthusiasm for the next one.

The event had a positive impact on participants, as they enjoyed the event and were excited to share their journey. It reduced stress and boredom, and members expressed their experiences in beautiful words. The interesting topics sparked their interest in writing. The event resulted in general body members appreciating the BODs and core members, and as a result, they got motivation to work with more enthusiasm for the next quarter. Activities like whisper races and text taboo kept members engaged, and the positive feedback from everyone was motivating for the team.

The event received highly positive feedback; the participants were happy to build rapport and realised the importance of creating and enjoying memories. Connections and confidence were developed, and everyone enjoyed the event with impressive enthusiasm. Teams cooperated well, and all members voluntarily participated in activities. The event was carried out smoothly, and new members had the opportunity to engage and create new bonds with others. Overall, everyone was satisfied with the event.
