Report

Name of the event: Chalo Rass Ramva

Date: 3rd October 2022

Time: 7pm – 10pm

Venue- Hiranandani Gardens, Powai

The aim of Garba night was to provide an entertainment to the club members as well as to celebrate our vast Indian culture.

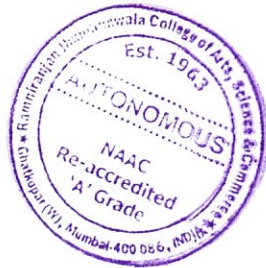

1. To build a rapport among members and enjoy the garba with music and dance.
2. To help introverts as well as extroverts for fun and enjoyment purposes.
3. To create a refreshing and comfortable atmosphere for members.
4. To give them a chance to showcase their moves and flaunt their attires.
5. To provide entertainment by keeping Garba as a medium, as it had been 2 years since anyone had celebrated any events due to the pandemic.

The impact of this event was that the club members really enjoyed the event and built rapport with others.

1. The members who didn't attend the event were eager to know what all happened, and this event acted as a persuasion for others to attend future events.
2. They created priceless memories.
3. They understood how our culture, divided into religions and castes, can enjoy each other and become connected.
4. We ensured that the boredom and stress after exams were over.

The feedback we received from the event was positive and worth our efforts.

1. They made stronger bonds and loved building rapport with each other.
2. They enjoyed and loved the event and appreciated the club's service.
3. They were amazed by the dedication and positive attitude that made this event worth it.
