Report

Name of the event: Chora Vs Chori 2.0

Date- 20th October 2022

Time – 12:00 pm- 2:00 pm

Venue- RJ College

Aim: The aim of Chora vs. Chori 2.0 is to generate effective critical thinking about the primary issues by debating on the topics given by us. To know the different perspectives of different people on the topics. to develop excellent oral communication skills, excellent critical thinking skills, and strategies to overcome fears of public speaking. The concept was to showcase that women, men, girls, and boys have equal rights, face hurdles and opportunities equally, have the power to shape their own lives, and if they think they can contribute to the development of society, the outcome will be the best. To build gender equality and a safer, healthier society. To involve all the GBMs in the event as participants. To develop effective tools for research, organization, and presentation.

Impact: The impact of this event is that everyone got a chance to know each other's different thinking and different opinions. It promoted problem-solving and innovative thinking and helped members build links between words and ideas, construct sentences, and express their views. It developed their oral and public communication skills. It helped them develop the confidence and desire to participate in all the other events of the club. As our goal was to improve the quality of public speaking and give people the confidence to speak in front of everyone, we were able to give our best. In order to change the thinking of people in society about boys and girls in today's world, our event made a huge impact by showing the members the importance of equality.

Feedback:

- The participants given very positive feedback from this event.
- The participants were happy to recognize and understand the problems of their opposite genders.
- They realized how much the opinions of everyone mattered.
- They developed speaking skills and the confidence to express their thoughts.
- They learned how important equality is.
- They understood that everyone was facing issues, regardless of their gender or caste.
- They enjoyed debating the issues faced by everyone in today's world. The event ended at 2:00 pm on a good note.
