REPORT OF DIAMOND JUBILEE CELEBRATION OF R.J. COLLEGE

Since we Indians are proud of our languages as manifested in our National Anthem too, on the occasion of RJ College completing 60 years, the Departments of English, Hindi and Sociology attempted to celebrate the multilingual ethos of the college since inception. An attempt was thus made to commemorate the original six languages that were taught in the college: English, Hindi, Marathi, Gujarati, Kannada and Sanskrit. The Departments organized multilingual Report Writing based on Independence Day celebration at RJ College in order to commemorate Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav in September 2022. Accordingly, a hunt was organized to locate student editors with prowess in writing in these six languages. Student editors covered the 75th Independence Day celebrations at RJ college on 15th August 2022 in all the above Indian languages. Their Newspaper Reports were documented in a colourful scrap book making it a unique record of both the event and our beautiful lingua touch of the past. The report assumes significance in that only English, Hindi & Marathi of the six original languages continue to remain vibrant, today.
