Report of "Session on Consumerism and Financial Literacy"

Date : 15th December 2022

Venue : Room No. 64

No. of Students Beneficiaries : 85

The department organized a session on 'How to be a wise consumer and smart investor' in collaboration with Consumer Guidance Society of India on December 15, 2022. The resource person Mr. Nandkumar Menon spoke about Consumer awareness and smart investing in the stock market. The speaker throughout the session concentrated on the importance that consumers play in the economy. He also shared with the students the advantages as well as the disadvantages of digitalization. He stressed on the difficulties such as money fraud and cyberattacks. The topic of preventing financial frauds by exercising prudence when making investments was then covered. Students actively participated in the session and at the end asked questions based on how to deal with investment fraud and its remedies. The session comes to an end with a vote of thanks by students.
