Report on Session on the occasion of "International Youth Day"

Date	: 12th August 2022
Venue	: MPSS Hall
No of Students Beneficiaries	: 86
No of Teacher beneficiaries	: 02 (Rekha Shetty, Nilesh Ghadge)
Resource Person	: Ashish Sawant (Founder and President of WTFT)

On the occasion of International Youth Day, the session was planned to educate the students about their social duty to society as young people. The importance of social duty towards the environment, which each person must exercise for the sake of society, was stressed by the speaker as he opened the session. They also concentrated on the crucial role that students may play in preserving the environment. Then they offered an overview of their non-profit organization and the work they conduct. In his remarks, he emphasized the role mangroves play in lowering pollution in urban areas. Additionally, they displayed some images and videos of their work. Following that, they invite students to contribute by joining their NGO. The session was finally opened up for questions and answers. And a student-led vote of appreciation brought the meeting to a close.
