Report

A 'Career Options and Career Opportunities' event was organized by Ramniranjan Jhunjhunwala College with the aim of providing students with information regarding potential career paths available across various disciplines on March 03, 2023. The event included participation from multiple departments, with each department inviting industry experts to speak about career options and opportunities.

The Department of Political Science facilitated the participation of Advocate Kunal Patil, an alumnus of the Political Science Department, to provide detailed insight into potential career paths available to students upon graduating with a degree in political science. During the session, students engaged in interactive discussions with the speaker, posing queries pertaining to different courses of study.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Professor Steven Lobo, expressing gratitude to all participants and emphasizing the significance of such career-oriented events in aiding students to make informed career choices.
