Commemoration Of Minority Rights Day

Department of History in association with Minority Cell

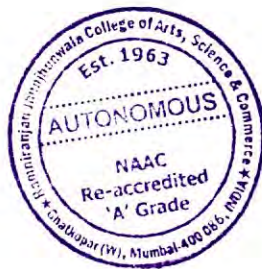

The Department of History in association with Minority Cell organized an Essay Competition on the topic "Measures to Protect and Promote the Rights of Minorities in India" in Commemoration Of Minority Rights Day on December 18, 2022. There is less awareness about the rights of minority communities among the students. They are sensitive towards the problems faced by these minorities. The competition aimed to encourage them to acquaint them with the constitutional provisions supporting the rights of minorities. It would help students to develop a positive view regarding the subject and enhance their civic sense. 11 entries were received. Students wrote about the history and significance of the Minority Rights Day in India. Essays covered different topics like articles in the Constitution securing minority rights, schemes and initiatives undertaken by the government, the need for affirmative action etc. It showed their attempt to understand the issue. Miss Piyusha Mhanulkar, Department of English judged the event.
