Report on Financial Literacy Session for the faculties (Aided Staff)

Date : 6th March 2023
Time : 11.00 am to 11.50 am
No. of Teacher Beneficiaries : 17
Venue : Seminar Hall, RJ College

The session was arranged to create awareness among the faculties about various investment options available in the market which will give better return rather than traditional investment. The session also covers the importance of Medical and term plan insurance for a better/secure future. The speaker started the conversation by contrasting the past returns provided by traditional assets like provident funds and more modern ones like mutual funds. Next, they discussed the various mutual fund investment options, such as SWP, STP, and others. Then they talked about another subject: how purchasing mutual funds also assisted lower tax liabilities. Then questions and replies were welcomed during the session.
