Report of E - Quiz on Tribes of India

The Department of History organized an online quiz on 'Tribes of India' on the occasion of International Day of Indigenous Peoples on August 9, 2022. The link for the quiz was shared to all students and teachers of the College. 309 students across faculties participated in the quiz. The quiz was attempted by 10 teachers.

This quiz aimed to create awareness about the indigenous people of India. In India, the term adivasi is generally used to refer to the indigenous people. There is a general misconception that all tribes are similar. However, there is huge diversity in the culture and lifestyle of tribes from different regions. The quiz covered aspects related to their culture such as dance, costume, houses, food etc. Image based questions increased interest and curiosity of the participants.

Report

The workshop on Basic Art of Warli painting helped the participants to revisit the history and art form of warli Painting and understand the importance of this art in contemporary society. Warli Art (or painting) is a style of tribal painting, practiced in the tribal region of the North Sahyadri Range in Maharashtra, India. This range encompasses cities such as Dahanu, Talasari, Jawhar, Palghar, Mokhada, and Vikramgad of Palghar district. This tribal art originated in Maharashtra, where it is still practiced today. These rudimentary wall paintings use a set of basic geometric shapes: a circle, a triangle, and a square. These shapes are symbolic of different elements of nature. The circle and the triangle come from their observation of nature. The circle represents the sun and the moon, while the triangle depicts mountains and conical trees. In contrast, the square renders to be a human invention, indicating a sacred enclosure or a piece of land. The central motif in each ritual painting is the square, known as the "chauk" or "chaukat",

Students are torchbearers of the future; if they learn the basic form of this art they will be a carrier to the next generation and the art form will survive because of the new learners. Such workshops assist in "self-development and self-enhancement" and enrich each one who participated in this workshop and equipped them with this ancient art form. This workshop allowed students and teachers as participants to learn warli as an art form and find out about the dormant artist. The guest speaker taught this art form in a lucid manner by helping the participants how to draw each line and shape of warli art and also taught how to fill the shapes with colours. Everyone was amazed at the guest speaker skills.

Report

Dr. Choithani's talk - If mass media has created a revolution and has had a tremendous positive impact on our social, political, economic, religious and cultural fields; its impact has been felt tremendously in shaping human values. Human values make up a humane society and mass media has undoubtedly played a stupendous role in shaping the same. But, if mass media – newspaper, television, internet, cinema or magazines – have fruitful impact by making us think and not just think but think critically, it has deteriorated a lot our values, art and aesthetics, political agenda, economic planning and religious or ethnic values. The mass hysertia through mesmerisation of mass media flood has lowered the Intelligent Quotient of laypeople. Dr. Choithani asked the audience to revisit, reinvent and metamorphosize our mass media so that we built a healthy, secure and harmonious society by transforming the implementation of human values; and human values like excellence, honesty, truthfulness, right-conduct, co-operation etc. are indispensable to peaceful and harmonise society.

With the talk, best comment competition was organized.

Report

Students participated enthusiastically in this online quiz. It is very important to revive and revisit Gandhian life, philosophy and human values as these are need of the hour. Gandhian Values are relevant in all times at all places irrespective of race, religion, gender and caste. Gandhiji believed non-violence and tolerance require a great level of courage and patience. In a world that is moving through the phases of war marred by violence and terrorism, there is a significant requirement of Gandhian idea of non-violence more and more today than the past days. Gandhian-ism was tolerant towards all religions and the world today needs more and more religiously and faith wise tolerant people in societies where violence is committed in the name of religion. Tolerance in the society will help in neutralizing the ethnocentric bias in the globe that is taking place day by day on the basis of religion, caste, ethnicity and region etc. Gandhian view of socialism is not political but more social in its approach, as Gandhiji thought of a society with no poverty, no hunger, no unemployment and education and health for all. The Human Values' Cell and Department of Philosophy of R. J. College through the online quiz paid our homage to the great father of the nation, Mahatma Gandhi.
