A Certificate Course in UNDERSTANDING DIVERSITY AND HARMONY
THROUGH CINEMA

How pleasant and enjoyable is it to explore 'diversity' through the medium of films?

Cinema is a powerful medium to examine caste, class, religious, ethnic, racial and gender diversity. The specially curated films raise vital questions about identities and may provoke one to think and question beyond the obvious. The workshop aims to reveal the layers and perspectives of 'existence' and 'ways of living' through cinema. This Course is a conflation of ideas, concepts and an on-going series of face-to-face conversations of the real, the mystical and the practical; an opportunity to those who would like to explore the phenomenon of "what is to be human and live with the other". The course explores 'othering' through the medium of films and seeks to build a dialogue around diversity and harmonious living. Some topics covered in the class include the phases of diversity dexterity, forgiveness, notions of faith, diverse religious beliefs, unconscious biases, ethnocentric and ethno-relative mindsets, and elements of diversity and pluralism. The course hopes to help students overcome their own biases to foster more inclusive living environments.

The duration of the course is 30 hours and will take place in two phases.

Phase I (16 hours)

Ten virtual sessions from 13th June 2021 to 20th June 2021, 4 pm to 6 pm.

Phase II (14 hours)
