REPORT

Mrs. Sumana Roy started the day with an ice-breaking session with the students asking each one of them to speak for two minutes about themselves. Based on this she gave her inputs as to how when time is limited you must speak the most important attributes about yourself. She conducted sessions on verbal communication in the business world, use of vocabulary and soft skills to train students in the following aspects of communication which would help them in easy transition from campus to corporate. The sessions included English communication, vocabulary, email etiquettes, soft skills, resume building, interview facing skills and analytical skills.
