The objectives of the theme "Gender and Development" were to acquaint the students with the contributions of Indian women scholars, to examine the changing role of women in the society and to sensitise the students about the challenges and struggles of women in patriarchal society.

The course was divided in four units and three sub-units per unit to do justice to the objectives of the theme. Apart from in-house lectures and e-content, we had invited three Guest Speakers to deliver the content. We had Dr. Ravishri Mishra from Royal College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Dr. Vijayeshwari Rao from NKT College of Commerce & Arts and Prof. Kinjal Mehta from Maniben Nanavati Women's College join us as our esteemed Resource Persons to engage the lectures.

The main aim of the course was to provide a platform to the students to freely voice their ideas and opinions and be as much participative as possible. Hence care was taken to ensure that all the sessions were highly interactive in nature with a two-way communication. It was important for the students to learn presentation skills and soft skills in addition to gaining knowledge and acquiring sensitivity towards the concerns of women.

The students were evaluated through Google Form MCQs test, PPT Presentations with Viva and Attendance Record.

16 students from TYBA and SYBA were eligible for earning the Certificate and 02 extra credits.
