CURRICULUM FEEDBACK ANALYSIS

History and Travel and Tourism Curriculum of 2021 - 22

An overall positive feedback was received from all stakeholders namely, teachers, students, alumni and industry persons for the History curriculum of 2021 - 22. More than 50 % of the student and alumni respondents agreed that the curriculum gave them a basic understanding of the subject. Close to 70% of them feel that it has helped them develop heritage consciousness. Maximum students felt that the curriculum would prepare them for careers in the fields of competitive examinations, teaching, research and archaeology and allied fields.

Students suggested that topics like history of North East India and Latin America should be introduced. 5 Industry experts gave their feedback on the UGC Travel and Tourism course. Most of them agreed that the syllabus was concise and could give students a basic understanding of the tourism industry and its requirements.
