Report of Field Trip to Fort Area:

The Department of History conducted a field trip to the heritage precinct of the Fort area on February 1, 2020. The activity was part of their internal assessment of Paper V- Socio-economic and cultural history of Mumbai. 26 students along with Dr. Meher Mistry gathered at Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus from where the walk commenced. Each student was allotted a heritage monument and they made an onsite presentation giving details of its architecture and history. The walk ended at Gateway of India. The students learnt about the salient features of various architectural styles and their differences like Gothic, Art- Deco, Indo-Saracenic etc. It was a unique learning experience for the students and helped them in understanding the evolution of Bombay city.
