In which she spoke about animal harassment, their rights and how can we protect them. She also provided us with knowledge of what food should be given, how to identify and deal with pregnant animals, how to train them and cure them at home. After the sessions the donations collected by our college was given to the staff there which included 35kg rice, 22kg moong dal and 9 cartons of newspapers. (each one of 8 kg) Then the exciting part started, the visit of the Centre. The staff was so helpful and cherish able it took about an hour to get done with the visit. Everyone had a very good time and we made some really life time memorable memories' got to know about animal's right. How to treat them and who they should contact in bad situations. People who were scared of dogs also end up loving them.
