Project Level Club

- To celebrate World Chess day by having an online chess competition open to everyone. Details: The participation fees was Rs 30 per person. The amount generated through the humble contribution of the participants will be used in helping the needy during these challenging times- Chess for a Cause
- We discuss with other club for joint project Rook & Roll (chess) for more initiative in project. Finalizing the online game portal for the contest. Then we make jpeg and pr message and put it on our social media handle and share with other club so they can also put on their social media handle for large number of participants in the joint project.
- Then we make a group for the discussion of the joint project. What we have to do on D-Day? So we discuss their further project details on group and we held conference video call on zoom app.
- How we conduct the chess competition (Rook & Roll) and all joint project members from other clubs they understood about event. Arranging volunteer to be in the room as observers. Finalizing the process of doing the draws for every match.
- These were the first joint project with RC Andheri, and the experience was amazing. The game started at 3 PM onwards and participants were divided with their respective opponent and each match had a volunteer to watch the game which was online entry fees Rs 30 only
- The entry charges from the participants for the chess competition acted as a fund raiser in the pandemic. Winners were awarded with e-certificate. Below is the detailed excel sheet of the whole event attached with the pictures of the chess match. Attendance: 48 participants
- Total income which will be used for community service $48 \times 30 = 1140$ picture and excel sheet. Chairperson and organizing committee details.
