Project Level Club

- The main aim/concept of the project was to provide education to as much as children possible under this Covid-19 Pandemic.
- Where internet cannot reach but our calls can. Collaboration invite were sent to SevaSahayog Distance Teaching.
- Google Form and PPT regarding Distance teaching process were forwarded by the sevaSahayog team. Approach were made to various clubs for volunteers. Creative poster and PR message were Published.
- Volunteers began to fill the Form and Joined the Whatsapp group through the link which was attached with the form. PPT regarding the distance teaching process were again sent to each and every participants.
- A Google Meet conference was conducted on 14th July by SevaSahayog team to explain every process to the volunteers in dept.
- Doubts and Questions were solved in the meeting. List of the Total volunteers (48) were sent to the team for further process. Within 1 week and 3 days Student ID and Volunteers ID with students details were sent to each volunteers, so that they can begin with the Teaching process.
- By the end of the month on 25th July the teaching process begun. People from sevaSahayog and project Chair persons were consistent in monitoring the volunteers. Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of fire.

Paathshaala was the project initiated by Rotaract club of RJ college along with SevaSahayog Distance Teaching.

- SevaSahayog is an organization that helps needy and less fortunate students (who do not possess internet) to get proper education during this pandemic.

SevaSahayog initiated the project in the month of May and reached out to a lot many Students via Distance Teaching.

- Rotaract club of RJ college Collaborated in the month of July and thought of increasing the number of volunteers as much as the club could.

Hence, Paathshala was initiated to provide the volunteers to the SevaSahayog and monitoring them during the entire project.

- Around 159 volunteers altogether (6 Volunteers for Monitoring the project from Home club and 8 volunteers from SevaSahayog; 42 Volunteers for teaching, including Home club, Other clubs and guest and 103 Volunteers
