were watching each and every match. Girls and boys played against each other. There was no bifurcation in gender. The game was with a restricted rule of timer. The timing made things more interesting. The event came into its final after 3 hrs of regular play. And finally we got a winner who was distributed by Medal Trophies and certificate. Also the runner up and the 2nd runner up were provided by the same. The day ended up with a strong message that if we provide or we try bringing awareness we end up doing it. The chess was won by a girl participant. 2nd day box cricket and women's cricket. After the smooth execution of day one, everyone was very enthusiastic for second day. On day 2 we focused on women Cricket. Wherein women's cricket started at 9:15. In which various teams gathered from different colleges. Including elite players from Ghatkopar jolly gymkhana. The structure of the event was knockout, leagues and finals. This event was carried out under the professional supervision of umpires. The quadrangle was occupied by a number of audience. By seeing this girl empowerment many students who thought of not playing because of their low confidence and unawareness of rules and regulations. Even they got inspired by seeing those girls playing. By seeing them playing they got inspired and registered on the spot and numbers of team increase which exceeded beyond our expectations. Semis were wound up by 2:00 and then the finalist were given red bull and at the end we got the winners. The winners and runner ups were awarded with Trophies and cash prize. The motive of this event was to not generate profit but to give girls a platform to play and bring women empowerment in practice. Simultaneously the another event box cricket was going on. Teams from various colleges and clubs took active participation in this game of gentleman. Two boxes were prepared by our members for smooth functioning of matches. 4 over per side matches were conducted. Participants shown full enthusiasm and game spirit during the whole tournament. At last the finals take place between diamond eagles and chiragnagar Packers. After a nail biting final match diamond eagle clinch up an victory. Both the finalist were appreciated with Trophies and cash prizes. 3rd day open cricket- 29th January. The preparation for open cricket started from morning. All the members were present in the ground at 6:30 AM. Matches were scheduled and slot were prepared by our sports director. First match started at 8:15. All together 8 team's slot was prepared. Matches were conducted in two different pitches. 4 officials umpire were appointed for smooth functioning of the tournament. At last 3 teams were left. 4th day it was kabaddi and football. At 3:00 PM kabaddi registration were started and the slots were prepared. Two officials were allotted for smooth execution of the matches. Kabaddi matches were knockout. 10 min per half matches were conducted. At last the winners and runner ups team were awarded with an trophy and cash prizes. The preparation started from morning 5am and winded up by 6.30 including the lime marks, center, and making the goal post of piped material. The ground was made for 5+2 game from each team.

The match held between 12 teams as it was a limited edition and only a team will be played from a particular area. So each and every team was at its best. Team gathered from different locations including the Thane and Navimumbai district and this was only possible due to a strong Pr. The tournament started by 8.30 after all the registration of team and filling of their forms. Each player's ID card was submitted and the draws were made. The event was in structure of knockout league and then finals. Event was carried out under professional main referee of state and 2 side line ref. Match was divided in 7 mins half each. The match was happening without any difficulty at its peak. Also there were no waste of time due to the manpower available that was helping us throughout the game. The knockout round finished by 2.30 and league was ended by 3.30. For final a break was given followed by Red Bull to the final teams. So that they energize as they were our partner in sponsor for drinks. The final started and went into its depth even the extra time wasn't able to decide the winners. The match went into penalties that was between two different district teams. One from Ambernath that included players who have represented state, while the other team was from Vikhroli itself that included various players from different well known clubs i.e. Red Devil FC vs Vikhroli FC. In penalties we got a winner, the winners were distributed by trophies each player by medal and cash prize, similarly the runners up were been awarded. The event wound up with a good note exploring the contacts in sport by our fellow directors and it wound up by 5pm. And thus, we had splendid 4 days and great games with zealous participants.

Participants are as follows- Badminton- 18- Total charges 540
