Project Level Club

- The Aim of this Event was simply to have a exciting evening with all the club members, gathering together to celebrate their bonds, friendship and love with their friends. The date for the event was finalized.
- Jpeg and PR messages were released. With the help of our parent rotary we could effortlessly manage a venue for the Prom party which was Rotary Service center, Vidyavihar.
- Booked a Disc Jockey. Sponsor was arranged for refreshment who was- Siddhant Mishra, Manager- Riddance Engineering greaves cotton ltd. In this case of covid-19, we took utmost care and followed all the rules. Hence, on the basis of first come first serve.
- We approached to people who paid the dues, first, then other members at the vacant place.
- Registration charges Rs. 200 were collected from non-Rotactors. Final Registration Sheet was prepared of 60 Participants. Event Tickets were provided to every participants.
- Invited our four dearest Alumni for judging the event. All the decorative materials were kept ready before hand and decorated the venue a day prior. We were set for the blast event of the year. The evening started with national anthem.
- SAA collared president Rtr. Mouzzam Khan. The notable alumni were also present at the venue.
- The prom started with a DJ bash followed by the prom activities. Everyone participated with great warmth and Keeness.
- Some participants already chose their partners and the remaining stag participants were given a chance to select one on the spot. So the competition started with ramp walk as the first round followed by Balancing on paper. Many of the participants lost at the balancing on paper round, few of them managed it till the 3rd round.
- This round was a question and answer round, each couple were asked questions about their partner, likes and dislikes individually. After this, last but not the least was the " Propose round". Only 4 pairs managed to get there. The couples were asked to propose their partners in a unique way and every couple did it in a grand and remarkable way.
