Project Level Club

- The aim was to motivate the youths and keep spirit in sports.
- To have some of the inspirational and life stories of our Olympians
- We co-ordinally invited Mrs Rachita Mistry, an Olympian who has represented India at world level events and she's best known for breaking Mrs. PT USHA'S record in sprint.
- We also had collaboration of this event with many club we sent them the details. We had 14 Clubs with us Then we surveyed our banners and got participants.
- I'm a Champion series
- We decided to have an event on the occasion of International day of sports and development.
- Firstly we made a Taskforce which would be working on ideas for the event, after a lot of deliberations and discussions, we decided to have a series of online sessions every Quarter having International Olympians participating in it.
- We named it I'M A CHAMPION, which resonates well with the theme of this year for our district We invited Mrs RachitaMistry, an Olympian who has represented India at world level events and she's best known for breaking Mrs. PT USHA'S record in sprint.
- We got in touch with different clubs and eventually we were able to get 14 clubs apart from us as partner clubs for this session which itself is a big feat.
- The session was conducted on Zoom with more than 85 participants in it, it went for about an hour and the event was hosted by our own Rotaractors.
- The session was a big hit wherein RachitaMa'm gave us important tips and also motivated the youth to take up any sport that they like, it was really great to see the participants asking questions to the guest speaker and it being answered by our guest.
