NSS EVENT REPORT

Name of the Event: Session on Cyber Security with PCGT.

Date: 21st September, 2018

Venue: Saboo Hall, R. J. College

Objective of the Activity: Emphasizing on Cyber Security and its importance.

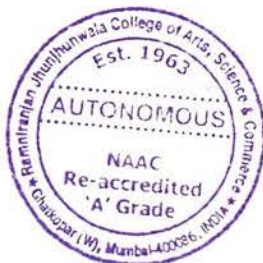

Number of Participants: 461 (includes 154 students of RJ College)

Organized by: NSS unit of R. J. College and PCGT

Brief Description: A lecture by Mr. Brijesh Singh on Cyber Security was organized to put emphasis on the increasing number of cyber cases and precautions to take for security.

Outcome of the Activity: Awareness on Cyber Security and its importance, contributing to UNSDG4.

Mr. Julio Ribeiro initiated the session by sharing how PCGT works and helps people to gain justice and social equality. Mr. Brijesh Singh introduced the concept of cyber-crime. He stated that cyber-crime has tremendously increased within the last decade due to the advancement of computer networks and data. He shared with the participants that cyber-crime is a matter of public concern as it affects the common people. He further stated that the main victims of these Internet Hackers are the teens between the age group of 14-25 as they are socially more active on a number of social media platforms. He also informed students about the Portal initiated by the Indian Minister and government in respect to Child Pornography and content relating to Rape, Harassment and Blackmailing. The session ended with a interactive round of QnA.
