REPORT

Project Name DOR 5.0

Venue1. Dadar police station

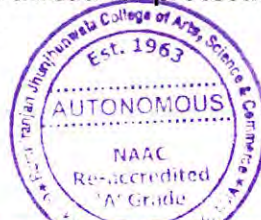

2. Pantnagar police (ghatkopar)
3. RJ College
4. Post office (ghatkopar)

Start Time 20-08-2021 09:39:00 End Time 20-08-2021 15:00:00

- Raksha bandhan is an auspicious festival to celebrate the bond between brothers and sisters where sisters tie rakhis to brothers.
- So we decided to celebrate Raksha bandhan in a unique way.
- As police officers, post office workers, college staffs, work hard for us so we thought to tie rakhis to them.
- Also the auto drivers, bus drivers to thank them for helping us even in this tough situation.
- As many people forgets to appreciate their work.
- And also the protection and support they provide us.
- To breakdown the myth that rakhis can only be tied to brothers and not the sisters.
- That's why we tied rakhis to the female officers to cherish them too.
- Many of us can't visit our cousins due to pandemic so we celebrated in the nearby police station, post office, etc

Summary

1. Everyone needs to be admired for their hardwork and also we should value their work.
2. Organizing such projects we acknowledge their efforts towards us, towards the society.
3. Arranged 200 rakhis by finding sponsor.
4. Took permission from the officials 20 days before the project and then carried out the projects.
5. Made a list of members for the event and updated with all necessary points.
6. Started the project at the decided time and also ended the project at good note.
7. Locations were travel friendly and not time consuming.
8. Celebrated rakshabandhan in a traditional but with a unique idea.
9. Tied rakhis to them ensuring that we are properly sanitized and wear mask so that we don't endanger them and ourselves.
10. Took time to spend quality time with them having fun to lighten their mood from the stressful day.
11. Made efforts to prepare beautiful greetings cards with a lovely message to it.
12. Now, Rakhi not only symbolize as a thread for protection towards their sisters but also valuing their responsibility towards us
