Report

A girl child deserves a life where she is treated as equal to a boy. And she should be loved and respected like others. She participates in the development and growth of the nation equally. To highlight this aspect, the DLE students organized an essay competition on the topic 'The Girl Child' on March 30, 2022. 26 students participated and expressed their views on how a girl child needs to be mentored and taught the proper values that will improve her self worth.
