REPORT

Name of the event: Dilwali Diwali

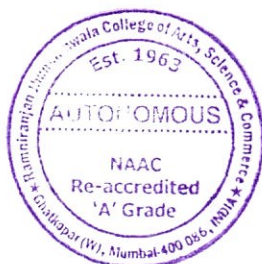

Date: 21st October, 2022

Venue: Dharavi , Dadar and Dadar Bridge.

Time: 3:00 p.m.

Dilwali Diwali is a community service project in which aims to help the needy people to celebrate this Diwali with more happiness and joy and bring smile on their faces. The event was planned three weeks prior to the execution of the event with the Vice Presidents of the club. We asked the members of the club to donate old clothes, stationary materials and food items for the needy people. Time period of one week was given to the members in which they donated the clothes and stationary items and the sweets were collected on the main day. A list was circulated in the group in which members interested to come to the venue for the event were requested to write their names. On day everyone come on reporting time and some of them had brought some more clothes and sweets so we had packed all those clothes and sweets. All the records were maintained that how many items we were carrying to the venue. Then event was ordered by the president Rtr. Nawaz shaikh. Then all the members travelled to the first venue which was Dharavi where we met Ms Rukhsar who coordinated with us to help the needy children. We interacted with them and distributed cakes, chocolates and soaps to promote hygiene. Then we clicked some group photographs with them. The children had made some cards for the President Rtr Nawaz Shaikh which showed their sweet gesture of being grateful. Then we moved to our next venue which was Dadar and Dadar Bridge where we went to a garden named as Pramod Mahajan Park. First We Gathered all the kids From slum area And then distributed the clothes, snacks and Sweets to them. We interacted with them as well and after that we clicked photos and videos with them. Dilwali-Diwali has shown a great impact of celebrating the Diwali. It was our pleasure to add value to the celebration of people living in slums and making them happier. The members were also happy with event and few feedback are:

Helping other is very nice but giving them the favourable things is great. The children's were enjoying so it was very lovely for us too see thank you everyone for giving this opportunity to help others.
