REPORT

Name of the event: Muskan 2.0

Date: 12th December, 2023

Venue: Sulabha special school (Tilaknagar)

Time: 3:00 pm – 5:00pm

The aim of the event was to bring smiles to special kids through entertaining efforts and provide them with a platform to showcase their talent. The event aimed to introduce new artistic experiences to the kids and continue the legacy of previous events with new initiatives. Involving Rotaractors was also our prime goal so as to encourage their future involvement and learning. The event also aimed to promote itself digitally through Instagram, increase the reach of the club and its followers, and promote qualities like respect and humility. Overall, the event aimed to create new memories, build confidence, and encourage interaction with special kids.

The event had a significant impact on everyone involved, including Rotaractors, who realised how important it is to try new creative and interactive activities. It reduced stress and brought smiles to the special kids. It was an opportunity for those who enjoy interacting with people and trying new things. The event left a lasting impression on the Rotaractors, with many getting emotional and feeling amazed. It encouraged everyone to step out of their comfort zones and be helpful to others. Feedback conveyed that the event was impactful and helped participants try new experiences. Overall, the event promoted helpfulness, uniqueness, and enjoyment among all participants as well as the kids.

The feedback received from participants was heartwarming and motivating, prompting a desire to organise more events in the future. Participants appreciated the efforts put into the event and expressed their emotions and gratitude. Comments such as “it was an experience like never before” and “I love doing these small things for kids” highlighted the impact of the event and a growing affection for such initiatives. We loved how the little things at times made us happy and cheerful.
