Report

Project Name: Sparsh

Location: Joymax high school

Date: 25th April, 2019

Time: 2.10 pm to 5.10 pm

The session about good and bad touch was given to school children of Joymax high school. Students were given training before the project.

Training session included:

To explain good touch and bad touch in an understandable manner to the kids

To handle the children with utmost care and sensitivity

To not use foul language or gestures

To be polite and calm during the session

A brief on good touch and bad touch was given to the members

On the day we marched towards the school and met their faculty and principal

They welcomed us and took us to the classrooms

We all were divided into pairs and were allotted classrooms

There were total 10 classrooms from standard 3 to 7

The session on good touch and bad touch included:

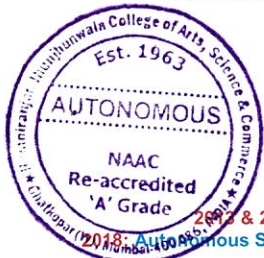

What is good touch and bad touch?

Here we tried explaining them with an example of a butterfly and a dog and how they react to human touch.

What are private parts or areas that are not to be touch by others?

What is to be done when someone forces onto them?

Explained them about physical assault and mental assault

Basic self-defenses techniques

We preached to respect each another irrespective of their gender

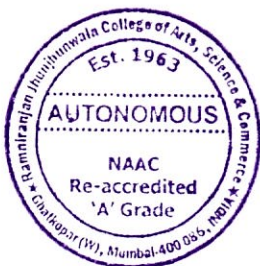

There were around 300+ children we catered to

Later we had few activities for the children

Teachers appreciated us for our work and thanked us

We all returned by 5.15 pm to our college and dismissed everyone.
